

Recall Notice

To: McLane
From: Kar's Nuts
Date: April 1, 2009
Re: Pistachio Voluntary Recall

As many of you have probably heard by now, there is a voluntary recall taking place in the market regarding pistachio nuts supplied by Setton Pistachio of Terra Bella, Inc. Kar's Nuts is currently cooperating with the proper local governmental authorities as part of the investigation surrounding the Setton Pistachio recall. The recall is being issued in response to an FDA investigation currently underway regarding a potential link with pistachios and salmonella contamination. We, along with Setton Pistachio, are taking a proactive and aggressive approach to recovering the affected product in order to assure the safety and wellbeing of our customers, as well as to avoid any possible confusion about the safety of these products.

Please note, that only those items produced with pistachios from Setton Pistachio are being recalled by Kar's Nuts. Attached to this memo is Kar's Nuts press release regarding this pistachio recall, which provides a listing of the exact items included in this recall.

Kar's would like all affected product (Product currently in warehouse's and product returned from the trade) to be returned to Kar's Nuts. Please instruct the correct individuals at McLane that have possession of the affected product to contact Ken Kramer, Kar's Nuts Materials Manager, directly at 248-588-1903 ext. 113 to arrange for the product to be returned to our facility.

We greatly appreciate your assistance and cooperation in managing this process. We apologize for any inconvenience and will continue to communicate any additional news. In the meantime, all other Kar's Nuts products not listed as part of the recall can be consumed and enjoyed as always.

