Brown & Haley Issues Voluntary Recall of Mountain Thins "Trail Mix" Flavor Because of Possible Health Risk

Thank you for your assistance in executing the recall of certain lots of Mountain Thins - "Trail Mix" flavor. Background on the recall and next steps are described below. Please contact Brown & Haley Customer Service with any questions at 1-800-426-8400 ext. 3085 or sweets@brown-haley.com.

BACKGROUND

On May 4, 2016 Brown & Haley undertook the precautionary measure of voluntarily recalling certain lot codes of Mountain Thins - "Trail Mix" flavor. There have been no illnesses reported in connection with this voluntary recall. No other types, varieties or flavors of Brown & Haley or Mountain products are impacted by this recall.

Brown & Haley was notified by our supplier of sunflower seeds of the possibility that some sunflower seeds provided to Brown & Haley may be contaminated with Listeria monocytogenes (L. mono). L. mono is an organism which can cause serious and sometimes fatal infections in young children, frail or elderly people, and others with weakened immune systems. Although healthy individuals may suffer only short-term symptoms such as high fever, severe headache, stiffness, nausea, abdominal pain and diarrhea, listeria infection can cause miscarriages and stillbirths among pregnant women.

Brown & Haley is committed to the health and wellness of each and every customer, and is taking this action out of an abundance of caution. Brown & Haley has informed FDA of its actions and is fully cooperating with the Agency.

Mountain Thins "Trail Mix" flavor was distributed to select retail stores nationwide. Additionally, several brokers and customers have received sales samples. Lots being recalled were distributed between March 7, 2016 and April 25, 2016, and are listed below.
